Accommodation request

Welcome, Jayke

Accommodation requests must be associated with your own medical condition. Other requests for accommodation, related to a family member or other non-medical reasons, should be coordinated with your leadership/Human Resources.

What do I need before submitting an accommodation?

Identity verification info

Information to identify yourself (may include Social Security number or other ID as required by your employer).

Accommodation event details

This includes the accommodation reason, type, and applicable dates.

Supporting documentation

This includes documentation provided by your physician stating the specific restrictions and limitations you have requiring the need for your accommodation request and the period of time the accommodation is needed.

Lincoln Financial Group will not be making a decision on your request. This interview provides information to assist your employer with the determination, tracking and documentation of your accommodation request. Any subsequent medical information or documentation provided by you/your doctor to support your accommodation request will be shared with your employer to facilitate the determination of your request.

Please note: Any information you provide regarding your request for accommodation, will be shared with your employer.

Feedback

To better assist you with your request, please confirm who you are.
